

A grid of 120 images showing a cruise ship being transformed by various artistic styles. The columns represent different styles: fire, The great wave off kanagawa by Hokusai, green crystal, a graffiti style painting, golden, Wheatfield by Vincent van gogh, Starry Night by Vincent van gogh, white wool, a monet style underwater, neon light, pop art of night city, and oil painting of flowers. The first row shows the original cruise ship image. The second row shows the ship with a fiery glow. The third row shows it with a green crystal effect. The fourth row shows it with a graffiti-style painting. The fifth row shows it with a golden glow. The sixth row shows it with a wheatfield by Vincent van gogh effect. The seventh row shows it with a starry night by Vincent van gogh effect. The eighth row shows it with a white wool effect. The ninth row shows it with a monet-style underwater effect. The tenth row shows it with a neon light effect. The eleventh row shows it with a pop art of night city effect. The twelfth row shows it with an oil painting of flowers effect. A red horizontal line highlights the 12th row.